Discovery Camp for Kids

Camper Code of Conduct

As a camper, I pledge that:

I will care for myself, those around me and our environment

- I will make honesty the basis of all relationships and interactions
- I will accept all campers and allow everyone equal opportunity to participate
- I will respect myself, others, and the camp environment
- I will be responsible for my own actions, attitudes, and behaviours

If a camper does not follow the code of conduct, Leaders/Supervisors will take the following steps:

Step 1:

Staff will redirect the camper to more appropriate behaviour, remind the camper of the code of conduct and camp rules, and remove the camper from the activity or situation if disruptive behaviour continues.

Step 2:

If the inappropriate behaviour continues, staff will document the situation. This document will include the behaviour problem, what provoked the problem, and the corrective action taken. Staff will notify the Camp Director of the situation, and the camp director will discuss the situation with parents/guardians.

Step 3:

If the inappropriate behaviour continues, the Camp Director may request that the camper take a short break from camp (e.g., be picked up early, take one day off). If the behaviour continues to interrupt the camp program, the camper may be required to take a longer break or may be removed from camp for the remainder of the summer.

If a camper's behaviour threatens their immediate safety, other campers or staff, the parent/guardian will be notified and shall pick up the child immediately.

The following behaviours are not acceptable and may result in the immediate removal of a participant for the remainder of the day, week, or summer:

- Endangering the health and safety of campers, staff members, or volunteers
- Stealing or damaging Snow Valley or personal property
- Leaving the program without permission
- Continual disruption of camp programming
- Refusing to follow the code of conduct or camp rules
- Using profanity, vulgarity, or obscenity
- Refusing to participate in activities or cooperate with staff
- Physical violence or bullying/teasing toward another camper, staff member, or volunteer: No refunds will be issued if a camper is removed from camp for displaying unacceptable behaviour.

Program Expulsion

Intentional camper behaviour that puts the camper or others at physical or emotional risk may result in immediate dismissal from the program. In addition, consumption or possession of alcohol, drugs, tobacco products and illegal or harmful substances will result in immediate dismissal from the program.

Any expenses incurred because of program dismissal will be the responsibility of the parent/guardian. Parents/guardians or a suitable designate must be available to pick up campers should they be dismissed from their program. Refunds will not be issued for campers removed from camp for disciplinary reasons.
